

Statute of the Julia Hamackova Award

Preamble

Julia Hamackova, professor of chemistry of water at the University of Chemistry and Technology in Prague, was the first woman at technical universities in Czechoslovakia to be appointed professor and become dean of the faculty.

Article 1

1. The Julie Hamackova Award (hereinafter referred to as the "Award") is granted by the University of Chemistry and Technology in Prague (UCT Prague) to female and male employees or to students of UCT Prague.
2. The basic categories of the Award arise from three intentions, which are:
 - a) Public recognition of outstanding contribution of women, employees of UCT Prague, in the field of scientific research, pedagogy, innovation and other involvement in academic sphere.
 - b) Public recognition of outstanding contribution of female or male employees of UCT Prague in the field of strategic and internal development of the university and support of equal opportunities or promotion of gender aspects in working relations and research at UCT Prague.
 - c) rewarding of works of students of bachelor's, master's and doctoral study programs of UCT Prague who incorporate sex and/or gender analysis into their research topics.
3. The Award for each of the listed categories is associated with a financial remuneration / scholarship and the presentation of a diploma, and for categories a) and b) a medal of the Award.

Article 2

1. The Award for outstanding contribution according Article 1 paragraph 2, letter a) and b) of this Statute is awarded on the basis of selection from the submitted proposals of candidates for granting the Award.
2. The call for submission of written nominations is announced once a year and published on the intranet website of UCT Prague in the section "Věda a výzkum" section in the "Ceny a soutěže" subsection and at the same time at the "Genderová rovnováha" website <https://gro.vscht.cz/cjh>.
3. An individual, a group of persons from UCT Prague or an organizational unit under which the nominated person belongs is entitled to submit a nomination for the Award.
4. The appointed evaluation committee will select the Laureates from the submitted proposals.
5. Terms, conditions and deadline for submitting nominations of candidates for granting of the Award are always specified in the current announcement of the call for the Award.

Article 3

1. Contest of student's works for the Award according Article 1, paragraph 2, letter c) of this Statute is announced at least once a year, at least 3 months before the deadline for submission of applications.
2. The call for Contest specifies in particular:

- category of the Contest (Student work of the SRC (SVK) type, Final thesis),
- conditions of participation in announced categories of the Contest,
- terms and conditions and deadlines for applications and the schedule of the Contest,
- method of evaluation of contest works,
- rewarding of contest works,
- dates and form of announcement of results.
- The announcement of the Contest for the Award is published on the website of UCT Prague and at the same time on website <https://gro.vscht.cz/cjh>.

Article 4

1. Granting of the Award is decided by an evaluation committee consisting of a minimum of three members:
 - one representative of UCT Prague with gender expertise,
 - Vice-Rector of UCT Prague for Research and Development or his/her deputy,
 - other experts in the area in which the Award is to be granted (in the case of category a) and b) representatives of individual faculties or university-wide departments/workplaces).
2. The members of the evaluation committee are always re-appointed for the currently announced category of the Prize by the Vice-Rector of UCT Prague for Research and Development.

Article 5

1. Conditions of the competition/contest, the dates and the way of announcing the results in the individual categories are set out in the current announcement of the call for the Award.
2. Awards for categories a) and b) are presented by the Vice-Rector of UCT Prague for Research and Development or another representative of UCT Prague management.
3. The Vice-Rector for Research and Development or his/her representative is present at the announcement of the results and the granting of Awards for category c).
4. There is no legal right to granting the Award and the Award is not granted in memoriam.

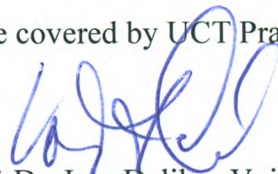

Article 6

1. Names and medallions of laureates awarded in categories according to Article 1, paragraph 2, letter a) and b) of this Statute will be published on the UCT Prague website and on website <http://gro.vscht.cz/cjh>.
2. The collection of abstracts of contest student's works will be published on website <https://gro.vscht.cz/publikace>.

Article 7

3. The financial costs associated with granting the Awards are covered by UCT Prague.

In Prague May 27, 2022

 prof. Dr. Ing. Dalibor Vojtěch
 Vice -Rector for Research and Development